On 11.6.2021, the 2021 amendment of the Work Safety Law of the People's Republic of China was promulgated. The amendment took effect on 1.9.2021.

The Work Safety Law was enacted in 2002 and this is the third amendment. In the 2021 amendment, there are 42 places have been amended, which account for one third of the original articles. Part of the amendments are related to strengthening the work safety responsibilities of the company and strict punishment for illegal acts.

Mr Yu Shuxi, the chief expert of Guangzhou Association of Work Safety and Emergency Management Service, will share with our members his understanding of the amendments of the Law in the webinar.

Speaker:

Mr Yu Shuxi (俞述西先生) was the first director of Guangzhou Administration of Work Safety and the counselor of the People's Government of Guangzhou Municipality. He was the founding president of Guangzhou Association of Work Safety. At present he is a legislative consultative expert of Guangzhou Municipal People Congress, an arbitrator of Guangzhou Arbitration Commission, a retired IOSH Honorary Vice-President, an IOSH Honorary Fellow, the chief expert of Guangzhou Association of Work Safety and Emergency Management Service.

Mr Yu Shuxi has been engaged in policies, regulations and administrative law enforcement for government for a long time. He conducted a great deal of legal and policy research and decision-making work for the government's economic reform, administrative law enforcement and administrative litigation and successfully handled many important economic and administrative legal disputes and important work safety accident problems.
